- Start pinpointing a "drop date" for your Go Mini's portable moving and storage container. This will be the day you receive your container for loading.
- Plan ahead for unit placement, remember you'll require overhead clearance. If you live in a condominium or apartment complex you should contact your property manager or local authorities to ensure you will be complying with any rules or restrictions.
- Plan for short-term or long-term storage at the Go Mini's Storage Center if needed.

Moving Out

- You are ultimately responsible for how your goods are packed and loaded in your trailer. Be familiar with our packing and loading tips and personally supervise hired labor.
- Load your goods in a pre-designated order, saving "last load" items for the rear of your shipment. This might include your vacuum cleaner or bed sheets.
- Check every room, closet and cabinet one last time before deciding everything is loaded.
- Use strapping and tie down rails in the Go Mini to secure the load.
- Take note of utility meter readings.
- Look over your Go Mini's document when you receive your container. Look this document over carefully and contact your moving coordinator with any questions or concerns.
- Call the local Go Mini's when your Container is ready to be picked up.

- Keep a friend or family member informed of your plans and "whereabouts" in case of an emergency or unforeseen event.

- After your goods are unloaded, contact Go Mini's to have your container picked up.

After the Move
